Valuation Explained

In the state of Georgia, all licensed moves must comply with the regulations of the Georgia Department of Public Safety. Part of this compliance includes the following.

ADDENDUM TO UNIFORM HOUSEHOLD GOODS BILL OF LADING: This document details the Carrier's Liability. Your mover's liability may be less than the value of your goods. According to law, carriers are not liable for the full value of your property unless you pay an additional charge for that protection. There are three options available to cover loss and/or damage:

OPTION 1: Released Value Protection. This option provides coverage at a rate of $0.60 per pound per article. This option is provided in the transportation charges with no additional charge to the shipper. Carrier shall have the option of repairing and/or restoration to the original condition.

OPTION 2: Full value protection. This option provides coverage based on current Replacement value at the time of loss or damage, up to the dollar amount of valuation declared. The additional cost is based on the actual value declared and the deductible, if any, declared. Carrier shall have the option of repairing and/or restoration to the original condition.

OPTION 2: (a) Replacement Value (See NOTE A) - No deductible

- Additional charge of $13.00 per one thousand ($1000.00) dollars of declared value.

OPTION 2: (b) Replacement Value (See NOTE A) - $300.00 deductible

- Additional charge of $4.25 per one thousand ($1000.00) dollars of declared value.

Should carrier fail to secure the shippers declaration completed and signed prior to any movement, the shipper will be considered to have chosen Option 2 (a) at no charge to the shipper.

NOTE A- Declared value per room must be an amount equal to or exceeding $5,000.00 per room excluding halls, attics, garage, closets and baths. A self-storage unit up to size 10 X 10 shall constitute one room for the purpose of valuation.

NOTE B- Rates contained in this Item are not subject to maximum rate rules.

DECLARATION

Prior to the move the shipper must select one of the options by completing the addendum made a part of the shipping order and be evidenced by their signature and date. Should the shipper refuse to select one of the options, the carrier will not be required to perform the move.
